

History of Europe, Code of Lesson: 300643

Contests: The Composition of German States to a united state. Europe in the second half of 19th century. The European system of free economy and its influence before the First World War. The decline of free economy and the rise of system of controlled market. The Economic Managed of authoritarian-fascist regimes. The system of centrally planned economy. The mixed economy and the state of provision. Globalization: the return to free economy.