MARX: PHILOSOPHY AND POLITICS (179)

Description: An introductory presentation of the young Marx's political theory and critique of ideology with emphasis on works such as the Critique of Hegel's Philosophy of Right, the Economic and Philosophic Manuscripts of 1844 and The German Ideology. Marx's social and political ideas are critically examined in their connection to other philosophical and ideological currents such as the European Enlightenment, the German Idealism, the Left Hegelian movement and the Utopian Socialism.
