

Economy and Society in 20th century - Greece II

Subject Code Number: 300634

Teaching Staff: Professor Theodoros Sakellarpoulos-Professor Manolis Choumerianos

CONTENT

The aim of the course is to examine in deep some significant issues affected the formation of economic and social structures of Greece (20th century until the World War II period). More precisely, there will be discussed issues regarding: a) land ownership (agricultural reform), b) the role of the Minor Asia Destruction and of the refugees in the evolution of the country, c) the role and forms of state intervention for the promotion of politics selected in an economic and also a social level, d) the role of external factors (international economic crisis).

Basic Books:

Th. Sakellarpoulos, Texts on economic and social history, Athens, Dionikos, 2003 (in Greek).

Th. Sakellarpoulos (ed.), Neo-Hellenic Society. Historical and critical approaches, Athens, Kritiki, 1993 (in Greek).