

PANTEION UNIVERSITY OF SOCIAL AND POLITICAL SCIENCES
DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY
UNDERGRADUATE COURSE DESCRIPTION

Professor Alexandros Chrysis

1. HISTORY OF IDEAS I: EUROPEAN ENLIGHTENMENT (690)

Description: A comprehensive and critical introduction to the study of social and political ideas during the Age of Enlightenment. The course presents the basic concepts and works of eminent philosophers of Enlightenment such as Locke, Montesquieu, Voltaire and Rousseau. Emphasis is given on topics such as social contract theories, political power, philosophy of education and critique of religion.