

Islam and Society in Southeastern Europe and the EU 763

The attention of this class is on the Islamic religion and its growing influence on the society and politics of Southeast European States. Drawing from examples of the treatment of Islam in certain EU states (eg. UK, France, Italy, Germany, Holland and Denmark), the class concentrates its attention on the historical interaction between Islam and SEE States and Societies and the challenges that the newly arrived Muslim immigrants bring to them both.